- Still owns her 1954 Ford truck
- Family owns the Meeker Lodge.
 - Grandparents built the lodge in 1922.
 - Parents moved up fulltime in 1967 after selling furniture business in Loveland.

Classmate Profile: Patty Dever Calaveri

- Meeker Park Resort still stands south of Estes Park is nearly 100 years old, started by Patty's grandfather, and run today by the fourth generation of descendants.
- The business sports a retreat from city life with rugged cabins visited by elk, bear, deer, moose and other smaller wildlife.
- While there used to be square dances, Sunday church services, and movie night, there are pool tables, and routine guided horseback rides led by Patty, herself.
- Each cabin is uniquely different, built with pine logs and stone fireplaces, some as old as from the 1920s and 30s.

Rod Null, left, and Beth Basista shoot pool at Meeker Park Lodge's recreation hall. The couple has been coming to the Allenspark resort for years. The recreation hall used to house square dances, movie nights and church services when the lodge was bustling with guests.

FEATHER TALK

TRUSCOTT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL, LOVELAND, COLORADO DECEMBER, 1963 - VOL. 3, NO. 3

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

CHRISTMAS DANCE

Everyone had fun at the Christmas dance on Friday evening, December 13, at Truscott. Thanks to the student council, Mr. Ridge, and Mr. Martin for a delightful time!

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The whole student body participated in the Christmas assembly program on Monday afternoon, December 16. Special parts of the program were done by the eighth grade choir and by instrumental groups. The instrumental groups were under Mr. Garcia's direction. The program was planned by Miss Gravel who also directed the singing groups. Mr. Ridge and Mr. Martin made the stage settings.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

We enjoyed the assembly program on Monday, December 2, when Mr. Chase, formerly a member of the United States Wheelchair Basketball Team, presented an inspiring lecture and demonstration. It was different and fun. We all marveled at Mr. Chase's skill, wishing we could even play basketball right. Mr. Chase is an example of a person who has overcome a severe handicap to take his place in the world.

CHRISTMAS

C is for Christ Child born in the hay,
H is for heaven far, far away.
M is for riches, gifts for the King.
I is for infant, whose praises we sing.
S is for shepherd who watches his sheep.
T is for treasure, the people did seek.
M is for Mary, a symbol of love,
A is for angels who watch from above.
S is for Savior, the One whom we love.
